

BIOGRAPHY

Christopher J. Steeves

Christopher is a partner with Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP. He provides advice with respect to the special corporate tax requirements of financial services, products and institutions. Christopher regularly advises on the income tax aspects of complex domestic and cross-border financings, and financial instruments including derivatives, securities lending and collective investment funds. He also has expertise with respect to transfer pricing and the successful resolution of disputes with Canadian tax authorities.

Christopher graduated from Queen's University (Kingston, Ontario) with a Bachelor of Arts (1989) and a Bachelor of Laws degree (1992). He was called to the Bar in Ontario in 1994. He is a frequent speaker and author of numerous articles dealing with Canadian tax matters. Christopher is co-editor for the Corporate Tax Planning feature of the Canadian Tax Journal and he is a member of the Editorial Board for the International Tax Newsletter (CCH Canadian Limited) and for Corporate Structures and Groups (Federated Press).

Christopher was recognized as one of Canada's leading tax lawyers by The Best Lawyers in Canada 2010. In addition, the Practical Law Company's "PLC Which Lawyer?" has identified Christopher as a recommended tax partner in Ontario.
